The Flavel: where entertainment happens

We have just closed the doors on Dartmouth's 3rd Annual Book Festival and we are thrilled at how successful it was. With two sold-out events and hundreds of people passing through the building over the three days, the festival is definitely establishing itself on the Devon Book Festival stage and we look forward to doing it all again next year.

There is no time to rest on our laurels because summer is out and the NEW autumn programme is very much in. This What's On Guide gives you all the LIVE events, music, theatre, dance, art, workshops, drama and youth provision from October to December. Remember we also have a 172-seat cinema, so do pick up a separate copy of our Film Flyer which gives you details of all films & event cinema.

Flavel Friends Update: If you are already a Flavel Friend then you have probably heard about the changes we are making to Flavel Friends - which will soon be rebranded as Flavel Rewards. Members will have all of the same benefits you have always had and some exciting new ones - which includes free cinema tickets, discounts on cinema tickets and also very nice discounts at the bar.

We have mentioned previously how cinema ticket sales in the UK are on the decline, and cinemas are finding it increasingly difficult to maintain levels of film tickets sales. At The Flavel we want to buck this trend and get people to fall back in love with going to the cinema, leave the comfort of your sofa and enjoy cinema as a social event, with friends or family, or on your own. Look out in this What's On Guide and you will find a whole page explaining the new Flavel Rewards Card and how you can get one when we launch.

Look out for our Comedy@the Flavel series, with Pauline Eyre (Anyone for Tennis?) and Cally Beaton (with her unapologetic insight into life in midlife) lined up for October and November, there will be plenty of belly laughs!

We are pleased to be hosting Dartmouth Theatre Company again for not one, but two classic stage shows, with Grease on 9/10/11 October and The Wizard of Oz on 27/28/29 November. Please come along and show your support for this wonderful local youth theatre company.

We are re-launching our youth choir (Young Dart Voices) in a new venue, The Cube at Dartmouth Academy, which we hope will make it more accessible for youngsters aged 8 to 16, and we are still offering our fantastic youth drama class (Dramatically Different) at The Flavel every Wednesday after school, great fun and excellent for developing confidence.

September also saw the launch of the Actors Studio, which is giving local people the opportunity to get involved with professional radio and film production. something which we hope will go from strength to strength - again check out their advert later in this booklet.

See you at The Flavel soon,

Alison, Marketing at The Flavel

Ever felt like the world's playing hide and seek with your stuff? One moment it's there... the next, poof! Your toy, your glasses, your book, your sock... even your ideas, gone. Meet Rey, an imagination expert, a question-asker, a glorious misplacer of everything, and by their side, Rabbit, their forever-loved bunny, wise and fiercely loyal. The one who's always there when the world feels too much. Together they set off on an unforgettable quest, to find all the things they've ever lost….

Ages 3+ A joyful adventure for families with curious minds and big hearts, and for anyone who's ever felt a little out of step.

JANUARY 2027

Sat 9-Sun 10	WELLNESS WEEKEND	various

From Sep 2026 we are scrapping booking fees and updating our pricing. This is in line with recent legislation which states that all transaction and delivery fees must now be included in upfront ticket prices, whenever prices are shown. This means that customers can see the true total price before committing to buy. Each event ticket on our website will show the ticket price and the MyFlavel venue levy. This levy generates funds that enable us to meet maintenance costs and make improvements to our building.
