SONGS OF LEONARD COHEN

KEITH JAMES

Sat 9 Jun, 7.30pm
£12

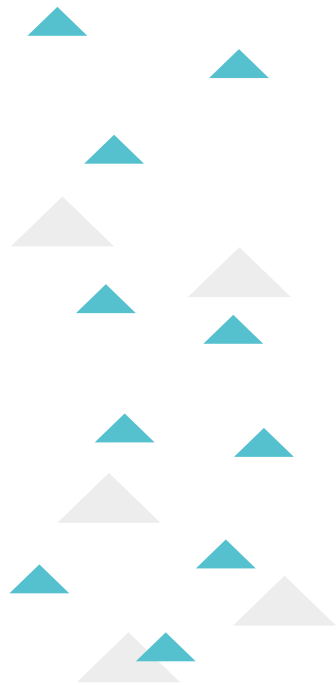

Enigmatic and mysterious songwriter Leonard Cohen had a wry humour and courage to wrestle with the unspoken, forgiving human frailty with the brush of each line. Performing with an undying love of the 'pure song' Keith James brings you a concert of Leonard Cohen's amazing material in an intimate and sensitive style, showing the inner strength of his greatest songs in their original perfect form. Amongst Cohen's best known songs, including Famous Blue Raincoat, Sisters of Mercy, Suzanne and Hallelujah are also poems by Federico Garcia Lorca, Cohen's greatest influence, that Keith James has set to music.

JAZZ SIRENS

JACQUI DANKWORTH

Sat 14 Jul, 7.30pm
£22

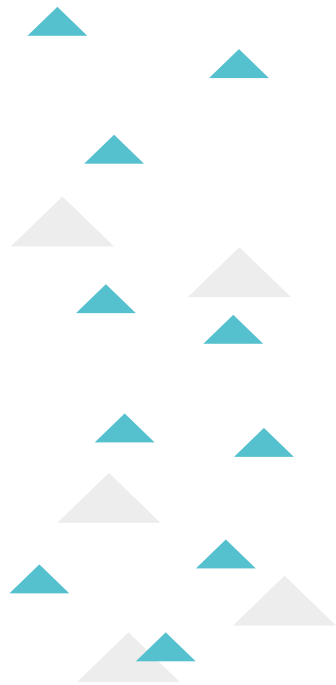

Given her musical pedigree – daughter of Dame Cleo Laine and Sir John Dankworth – it is no surprise that Jacqui is firmly positioned as one of the UK's foremost jazz vocalists. In this very special and intimate evening of world-class music, Jacqui celebrates the most iconic vocalists of the Twentieth Century, the singers who defined 'The Great American Songbook' - including Ella Fitzgerald, Billie Holiday, Nina Simone and Peggy Lee. Featuring the classic numbers that made them international stars, alongside stylish re-workings of lesser-known gems, she shares with us the music of these 'Jazz Sirens'

JAZZ CLUB

MARTIN DALE TRIO
FEATURING
ENRICO TOMASSO

Sat 11 Aug, 7.30pm
£15

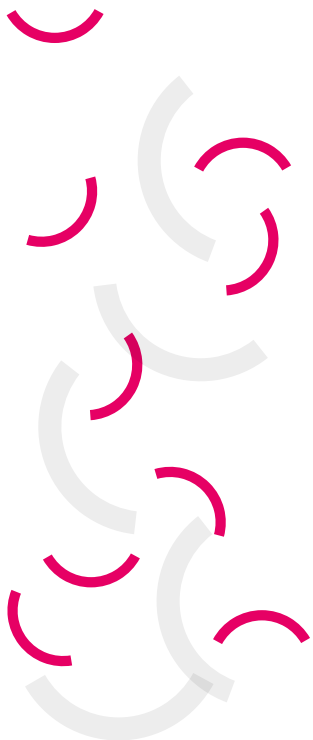

The Martin Dale Trio is joined by Enrico Tomasso, who is considered one of the top trumpeters on the jazz scene and has won best trumpet category in the British Jazz Awards four times. A popular figure at many of the European jazz festivals and clubs he has exciting presence and a lively personality on stage with his command of the instrument and stylistic invention placing him in the top echelon.

Exposed to the best of jazz from when he was a child, he met many of the great names including Louis Armstrong who took him under his wing, giving him advice and corresponding with him.

He's played with many great British and American Jazz musicians and is in demand in the studio especially for period styles such as Bryan Ferry's 'The Jazz Age', the soundtrack to 'The Great Gatsby' remake and the specially commissioned sound track to 'Shooting Stars' by the British Film Institute.

LILIAN BELLAMY

AN EVENING WITH SUNNY ORMONDE

Mon 7 May, 7.30pm
£12

Sunny has played the 'outrageous, raunchy Lilian Bellamy' in Radio 4's Archers for 16 years. Her antics have kept us entertained, whether riding round Ambridge on a Harley Davidson, drinking the Cider Shed dry with Eddie Grundy or absconding to Costa Rica with her beloved but treacherous Tiger.

Tonight Sunny will fill you in on behind the scenes stories - an evening of anecdotes and banter from her long and distinguished acting career - humorous and touching in turn. You don't have to be an Archers listener to enjoy this highly entertaining evening! There is something for everyone.

THE DRESSER

DARTMOUTH PLAYERS

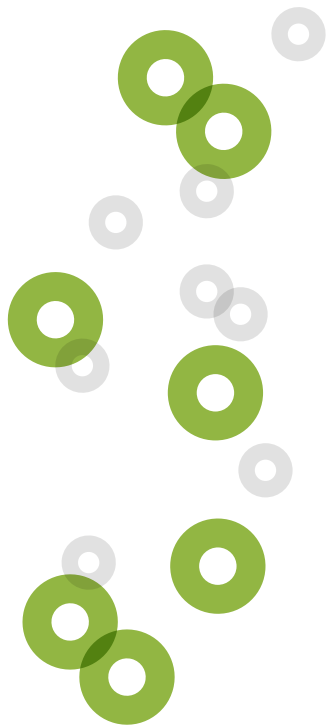

Fri 25 and Sat 26 May, 7.30pm
£14.20, concessions £12.80

Both hilarious and poignant, Ronald Harwood's 'The Dresser' explores the relationship between two men who are reluctantly and inevitably co-dependent.

As World War II rages, backstage in a provincial English Theatre, an ageing, once-famous classical actor is troubled. Sir, the last in a dying breed of great English Shakespearian actors, is unwilling to take to the stage to deliver his renowned portrayal of King Lear. It falls to his faithful dresser Norman to rouse another great performance from him, to keep both the show and its star from falling apart.

THE NOSTALGIA FILM FLAVEL

BUSTER KEATON'S THE GENERAL – WITH PETER KRÄMER

Sat 28 Jul, 7.30pm
£7.50, £6 under 18s, conc £7

Widely regarded as one of the greatest masterpieces of American silent cinema, The General, directed by and starring Buster Keaton, tells the story of a locomotive engineer who gets caught up in the American Civil War. Combining the meticulous recreation of the historical past with large-scale action sequences, astonishing acrobatics and often quite subtle humour as well as slapstick antics, this is a thrilling, beautiful, funny and very touching movie.

The screening will be introduced by Peter Krämer, author of the BFI Film Classics volume on The General, who discusses the film's production history, marketing and reception. There will be a chance to discuss the film with Peter after the screening.

REGULAR SCREENING

Set during World War II, Casablanca focuses on an American expatriate who must choose between his love for a woman and helping her and her husband, a Czech Resistance leader, escape from the Vichy-controlled city of Casablanca to continue his fight against the Nazis.

The film's lead characters, memorable dialogue, and pervasive theme song have all become iconic.

The 11am screening is a relaxed screening. It's ok to move around, make a noise and talk, or even sing along. We aim to create a welcoming atmosphere where people understand the needs of others and the lights are left low.

JAZZ NIGHT WITH MARTIN DALE
AND MARK NIGHTINGALE

The now legendary Martin Dale Jazz Night once again starts the Flavel's Dart Music Festival program. Martin Dale is an acclaimed saxophonist who has worked with such acts as Petula Clarke, Neil Sedaka, Tom Jones and even X Factor winner Alexandra Burke. This year his special guest is Mark Nightingale who brings a wealth of experience having played with Sting on 'Ten Summoner's Tales', toured with James Morrison, and backed such jazz luminaries as John Dankworth and Cleo Laine.

SAT 12 MAY

JESS HEYWOOD PUPILS

This concert is performed by local young musicians, all taught by Jessica and a 'must see' if you love to support young talented people, the professionals of tomorrow. She is a well-known figure in and around Dartmouth and is involved in all aspects of music. Her enthusiasm for cello playing, singing and teaching has touched many from the very young to adults.

GIGSPANNER

Since leaving Steeleye Span in 2013, legendary fiddle player Peter Knight has devoted his time to his innovative trio, establishing them as one of the top tier acts on the British folk/roots scene. Taking traditional music as a starting point, the trio effortlessly introduce French, Cajun, Cuban and Eastern European influences to produce a sound at once familiar but brilliantly innovative. Joined by Roger Flack on guitar and Sacha Trochet on percussion.

LADIES OF JAZZ - ANNETTE GREGORY

Although Annette began singing at the age of 4 to the ska and country that was regularly played in her house, she believes she only found her true voice on hearing Ella Fitzgerald for the first time. Since then she has wowed critics and public alike with her Ladies of Jazz show. Works by Sarah Vaughan, Julie London, Billie Holiday, Nina Simone and of course Ella are given due reverence by the depth and beauty of Annette's voice.

JENNY SEEAR

7 May – 10 Jun

Jenny is a local artist from Slapton, who is passionate about nature, animals and the local landscapes. Her paintings are light-hearted and quirky, and she hopes they bring a smile to people's faces. One customer described her new painting as her 'Happy Place'.

Jenny sold her first hare painting in 2014, and they are now for sale in galleries throughout the South Hams. Each hare is individual with its own funny name and unique colourful background. This is her first solo exhibition.

DARTMOUTH ACADEMY SUMMER EXHIBITION

11 Jun – 8 Jul

Dartmouth Academy are proud to present their annual exhibition of GCSE work from Art & Design and Photography. With the school's Visual Arts status you can expect to see very high quality work as well as a broad range of media, techniques and processes. This exhibition provides the students with a further opportunity to showcase their work to a much larger audience, which it justly deserves and is well worth a visit. Head of Art and Design, Nicola Perrott, said 'As usual our students have produced skilful and interesting pieces. I would like to thank them as well as my colleagues, Sue McNiven, Ross Strudwick and framer, Neil Patey.'

FROM DARTMOUTH TO HOPE COVE

HELENA CLEWS

9 Jul – 5 Aug

A series of new paintings and drawings by the artist Helena Clews, including local scenes from Dartmouth to Hope Cove. Helena paints in her studio in Kingsbridge but regularly teaches Monday Art Classes and life drawing on Tuesdays at the Flavel.

FISH AND SHIPS TWICE

RHIAN WYN HARRISON
AND LEE POVER

6 Aug – 2 Sep

Two local artists return with another quirky mixed media exhibition, featuring coastal art inspired by the Regatta! Lee Pover specialises in chunky hand built ceramics with a nautical theme using driftwood and other sea-sourced treasures from Dartmouth and the surrounding coastline.

Rhian Wyn Harrison repurposes old books and maps as both background and inspiration for her witty and colourful illustrations. Drawn by hand and coloured with ink, gouache and pastel, the work features birds, fish and other sea creatures.

THE LIVE TO SCREEN FLAVEL

ROH LIVE – MANON

Thu 3 May, 7.15pm
£16.50, £12.50 under 18s

Manon's brother Lescaut is offering her to the highest bidder when she meets Des Grieux and falls in love. They elope to Paris, but when Monsieur G.M. offers Manon a life of luxury as his mistress she can't resist.

Kenneth MacMillan's source for Manon was the 18th-century French novel by Abbé Prévost, already adapted for opera by Massenet and Puccini. From its premiere with Antoinette Sibley and Anthony Dowell, the ballet quickly became a staple of The Royal Ballet's repertory, and a touchstone of adult, dramatic dance.

NT LIVE – MACBETH

Thu 10 May, 7pm
£16.50, £12.50 under 18s,
£5 GCSE English students

Shakespeare's most intense and terrifying tragedy, directed by Rufus Norris, will see Rory Kinnear and Anne-Marie Duff return to the National Theatre to play Macbeth and Lady Macbeth.

In the ruined aftermath of a bloody civil war the Macbeths fight ruthlessly to survive, propelled towards the crown by forces of elemental darkness.

AN AMERICAN IN PARIS

Wed 16 May, 7:30pm
£16.50, £12.50 under 18s

This breathtakingly beautiful new production of Tony Award-winning Broadway musical, inspired by the Oscar winning MGM film, tells the impassioned story of an American GI's chance encounter with a young dancer against the backdrop of the 'City of Light'.

Featuring the gorgeous music and lyrics of George and Ira Gershwin, stunning designs, and show-stopping choreography and a record-setting 28 five-star reviews from critics.

TRULY RAVISHING

The Guardian

OSCAR WILDE - AN IDEAL HUSBAND

Tue 5 Jun, 7.15pm
£15, £12.50 under 18s

A new production of the Rolls-Royce of English comedies, broadcast live to cinemas from the Vaudeville Theatre in London's West End.

This entertaining and still topical play sees an ambitious government minister, Sir Robert Chiltern's smooth ascent to the top assured until Mrs Cheveley appears in London with damning proof of his previous financial chicanery. Starring real-life father and son, Edward and Freddie Fox as the fictional father and son in the play, with well-known TV and stage actress, Frances Barber playing Mrs Cheveley.

ROH LIVE - SWAN LAKE

Tue 12 Jun, 7.15pm
£16.50, £12.50 under 18s

Prince Siegfried chances upon a flock of swans while out hunting. When one of the swans turns into a beautiful woman, Odette, he is enraptured. But she is under a spell that holds her captive, allowing her to regain her human form only at night.

Swan Lake was Tchaikovsky's first score for ballet and is arguably the best loved and most admired of all classical ballets with striking choreographic contrasts between the royal palace scenes and the lyrical lakeside scenes.

RSC LIVE - ROMEO AND JULIET

Wed 18 Jul, 7pm
£16.50, £12.50 under 18s

What if your first true love was someone you'd been told you must hate?

Set in a world very like our own, this Romeo and Juliet is about a generation of young people born into violence and ripped apart by the bitter divisions of their parents. The most famous story of love at first sight explodes with intense passion and an irresistible desire for change, but leads all too quickly to heartbreaking consequences.

AMORE, MY TRIBUTE TO LOVE - LIVE IN MAASTRICHT

ANDRÉ RIEU

Sun 29 Jul, 3pm
Tue 7 Aug (Encore screening),
7.30pm
£16.50, £12.50 under 18s

'The King of Waltz', André Rieu is one of the world's most popular music artists and his legendary annual Maastricht concert is an eagerly anticipated cinema event of the year.

Set against the stunning medieval backdrop of the town square in André's Dutch hometown, the spectacular concert features the maestro, along with his 60-piece Johann Strauss Orchestra, sopranos, tenors and very special guests. André delivers an unforgettable musical experience full of humour, fun and emotion for all ages.
