ROH LIVE – THE NUTCRACKER

Mon 3 Dec, 7.15pm
£16.50, £12.50 under 18s

Clara is given an enchanted Nutcracker doll on Christmas Eve. As midnight strikes, she creeps downstairs to find a magical adventure awaiting her and her Nutcracker.

Peter Wright's interpretation of The Nutcracker has been enchanting children and adults alike since its first performance by The Royal Ballet in 1984. Lev Ivanov's 1892 ballet combined with Tchaikovsky's sumptuous, iconic score are presented in a festive period setting with vivid designs to make this a charming and magical production.

A CHRISTMAS CAROL

Tue 11 Dec, 7.30pm
£15, £12.50 under 18s

Broadcast live on the big screen, and based on Charles Dickens own performance adaptation of A Christmas Carol, Simon Callow stars in a one-man theatrical extravaganza of festive storytelling that is both heart-warming and deeply moving. Following critically acclaimed, sold-out theatre seasons Simon Callow (Four Weddings and a Funeral, Shakespeare in Love) returns to wow audiences with this tour de force performance, reimagined especially for cinema.

A Christmas must-see!

THE DARTMOUTH ORCHESTRA

Mon 10 Dec, 7.30pm
£12, £5 under 18s

Under musical director Tim Pithers, with leader Brenda Willoughby, the orchestra returns to the Flavel for their annual December concert - with an entirely Russian theme. Among other works, they will be joined in Rachmaninov's 2nd Piano Concerto by pianist Phillip Leslie. Phillip started playing the piano in Cornwall, aged seven, moving on to London to study at Trinity Laban Conservatoire and launching a glittering performance career.

This promises to be a much-needed antidote to the stresses of Christmas preparations as you enjoy excellent musical entertainment with mulled wine and a mince pie!

THE LIVE TO SCREEN FLAVEL

NT LIVE – JULIE

Thu 6 Sep, 7pm
£16.50, £12.50 under 18s

Vanessa Kirby and Eric Kofi Abrefa star in this brand new production of August Strindberg's play Miss Julie which remains shocking and fiercely relevant in its new setting of contemporary London.

Wild and newly single, Julie throws a late night party. In the kitchen, Jean and Kristina clean up as the celebration heaves above them. Crossing the threshold, Julie initiates a power game with Jean – which rapidly descends into a savage fight for survival.

RSC LIVE – THE MERRY WIVES OF WINDSOR

Wed 12 Sep, 7pm
£16.50, £12.50 under 18s

Down on his luck in the suburbs, John Falstaff plans to hustle his way to a comfortable retirement by seducing the wives of two wealthy men.

Unknown to him, it's the women of Windsor who really pull the strings, orchestrating Falstaff's comeuppance amidst a theatrical smorgasbord of petty rivalries, jealousies and over-inflated egos. For a fat Englishman, a Welshman and a Frenchman, the only way is Windsor...

NT LIVE – KING LEAR

Thu 27 Sep, 7pm
£16.50, £12.50 under 18s

Broadcast live from London's West End, see Ian McKellen's 'extraordinarily moving portrayal' (Independent) of King Lear as Jonathan Munby directs this contemporary retelling of Shakespeare's tender, violent, moving and shocking play.

Considered by many to be the greatest tragedy ever written, King Lear sees two ageing fathers – one a King, one his courtier – reject the children who truly love them. Their blindness unleashes a tornado of pitiless ambition and treachery, as family and state are plunged into a violent power struggle with bitter ends.

THE LIVE TO SCREEN FLAVEL

LIVE FROM SHAKESPEARE'S GLOBE – THE WINTER'S TALE

Thu 4 Oct, 7.15pm
£16.50, £12.50 under 18s

The Winter's Tale is Shakespeare's great play of the irrational and inexplicable, illustrating how uncontrollable emotions can range across gender, country, class and age and taking audiences from the stifling atmosphere of the Sicilian court to the unbuttoned joy of a Bohemian festival.

Staged at the Globe Theatre in London, this new production is directed by Blanche McIntyre and stars Will Keen (The Crown, Wolf Hall), Priyanga Burford (W1A, Marcella) and Annette Badland (EastEnders, Father Brown).

OSCAR WILDE SEASON LIVE – THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING EARNEST

Tue 9 Oct, 7.15pm
£15, £12.50 under 18s and conc

Oscar Wilde's The Importance of Being Earnest, broadcast live from the Vaudeville Theatre in London's West End.

Wilde's much-loved masterpiece throws love, logic and language into the air to make one of theatre's most dazzling fireworks displays. Jack, Algy, Gwendolyn and Cecily discover how unsmooth runs the course of true love, while Lady Bracknell keeps a baleful eye on this mayhem of manners.

ROH LIVE – MAYERLING

Mon 15 Oct, 7.15pm
£16.50, £12.50 under 18s

Crown Prince Rudolf of Austria-Hungary is emotionally unstable and haunted by his obsession with death. He is forced to marry Princess Stephanie. Soon afterwards his former lover Marie Larisch introduces him to a new mistress, Mary Vetsera, a young woman who shares his morbid fascination.

Mayerling is based on the true story of the deaths of Crown Prince Rudolf and his teenage mistress in 1889. This dark and intense ballet was created for The Royal Ballet in 1978 by Kenneth MacMillan with the music

ROH LIVE – DIE WALKÜRE

Sun 28 Oct, 5pm
£16.50, £12.50 under 18s

Wotan craves the ring, but, bound by his own laws, he can't retrieve it himself. With a mortal woman he has twins, Siegmund and Sieglinde, and hopes Siegmund will become the free agent he needs to take the ring.

Die Walküre has become the most performed of Richard Wagner's four-opera cycle Der Ring des Nibelungen, loved and admired for its nuanced and intelligent exploration of complex family entanglements, expressed through music of astonishing power.

Sung in German with English subtitles.

ROH LIVE – LA BAYADÈRE

Tue 13 Nov, 7.15pm
£16.50, £12.50 under 18s

Nikiya, a temple dancer, is in love with the warrior Solor. The High Brahmin pursues Nikiya, and when she rejects him, he plans to take revenge on Solor.

An iconic 19th-century Russian ballet, La Bayadère was originally performed at the Bolshoi Theatre in St Petersburg in 1877. It remained unknown in the West until the Kirov Ballet toured with the Kingdom of the Shades scene in 1961. Natalia Makarova created this production in 1980 which was first performed by The Royal Ballet in 1989.

NT LIVE – THE MADNESS OF KING GEORGE III

Tue 20 Nov, 7pm
£16.50, £12.50 under 18s

It's 1786 and King George III is the most powerful man in the world but his behaviour is becoming increasingly erratic as he succumbs to fits of lunacy. With the King's mind unravelling at a dramatic pace, ambitious politicians and the scheming Prince of Wales threaten to undermine the power of the Crown, and expose the fine line between a King and a man.

The cast of this new production of Alan Bennett's play includes Olivier Award-winners Mark Gatiss and Adrian Scarborough.

NT LIVE – ANTONY AND CLEOPATRA

Thu 6 Dec, 7pm
£16.50, £12.50 under 18s

Ralph Fiennes and Sophie Okonedo play Shakespeare's famous fated couple in his great tragedy of politics, passion and power.

Caesar and his assassins are dead. General Mark Antony now rules alongside his fellow defenders of Rome. But at the fringes of a war-torn empire the Egyptian Queen Cleopatra and Mark Antony have fallen fiercely in love. In a tragic fight between devotion and duty, obsession becomes a catalyst for war.
