MARTIN SIMPSON

FOLK AT THE FLAVEL

Thu 12 Sep, 7.30pm
£19, £5 under 18s

Folk at the Flavel welcomes back a true Flavel favourite, one of the finest acoustic and slide guitar players in the world, Martin Simpson. Martin will be featuring tracks from his new album, 'Rooted', released on 30 August. The sell-out audiences at Martin's previous visits to the Flavel have seen that whether playing American old-time music, blues, or his own material he is a guitarist of immense subtlety.

Martin has been nominated an astounding 31 times in the 16 years of the BBC Radio 2 Folk Awards - more than any other performer.

A new documentary about the life and work of Paul Gauguin, it will explore his extraordinary artistic achievement, with commentary from descendants, artists and world experts.

This will be followed by an exclusive private view of the National Gallery exhibition 'Gauguin Portraits', just after it opens in London. The cinema audience will be given a tour by the exhibition curators and guest contributors, bringing this first ever exhibition of Gauguin's portraits to the big screen with stunning close-ups and illuminating insights.

NT LIVE – A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM

Thu 17 Oct, 7pm
£15, £10 under 18s

Shakespeare's romantic comedy captured live from the Bridge Theatre in London. Gwendoline Christie, Oliver Chris, David Moorst and Hammed Animashaun lead the cast as Titania, Oberon, Puck and Bottom. Directed by Nicholas Hytner, this immersive production transforms the theatre into a forest - a dream world of flying fairies, contagious fogs and moonlight revels, surrounded by a roving audience following the action on foot.

ROH LIVE – DON PASQUALE

Thu 24 Oct, 7.30pm
£16.50, £10 under 18s

Bryn Terfel heads the cast for this new production of Donizetti's comedy of domestic drama across two generations.

The witty story of a middle-aged man whose supposed young wife runs rings around him – with her own ulterior romantic purpose in mind – has long delighted and surprised audiences. Damiano Michieletto's exhilarating production shows how contemporary the characters still are and how immediate and touching the story remains. Sung in Italian with English subtitles

LEONARDO: THE WORKS

Tue 29 Oct, 7.30pm
£12

Leonardo da Vinci is acclaimed as the world's favourite artist. His peerless paintings and drawings will be the focus of this film, documenting every single attributed painting.

Released on the 500th anniversary of his death, this definitive film about Leonardo will look afresh at his inventiveness, his sculptural skills, his military foresight and his ability to navigate the treacherous politics of the day through the prism of his art.

NORTHERN BALLET - DRACULA

£15

With darkly Gothic sets and costumes, Northern Ballet is resurrecting Bram Stoker's classic horror story for special live Halloween screenings. The haunting tale of passion and immortality is played out through a unique blend of sensuous dancing and gripping theatre - this is ballet with a dramatic bite.

With atmospheric music by Alfred Schnittke, Arvo Pärt, Michael Daugherty and Sergei Rachmaninov, Dracula is a thrilling adaptation that will leave you thirsty for more.

ROH LIVE - CONCERTO, ENIGMA VARIATIONS, RAYMONDA ACT III

Tue 5 Nov, 7.15pm
Sat 9 Nov, 2pm
£16.50, £10 under 18s

Petipa's Raymonda Act III is Russian classical ballet summarized in one act, full of sparkle and precise technique, while Ashton's Enigma Variations is quintessentially British in every way – from its score by Elgar and period designs by Julia Trevelyan Oman, to Ashton's signature style, the essence of British ballet. Finishing with Concerto, MacMillan's fusion of classical technique with a contemporary mind, this mixed programme highlights the versatility that shows the breadth of The Royal Ballet's heritage.

NT LIVE - HANSARD

Thu 7 Nov, 7pm
£16.50, £12.50 under 18s

'See two-time Olivier Award winners, Lindsay Duncan and Alex Jennings, in this witty and devastating portrait of the governing class by Simon Wood, broadcast live from the National Theatre in London.

It's a summer's morning in 1988 and Tory politician Robin Hesketh has returned home to the idyllic Cotswold house he shares with his wife of 30 years, Diana. But all is not as blissful as it seems. As the day draws on, what starts as gentle ribbing and the familiar rhythms of marital scrapping quickly turns to blood-sport.

'I prefer living in colour.'
David Hockney
'Me too!' Ian Gunn

Because, as Ian says, he 'grew up in black-and-white', he has a penchant for the sometimes exuberant use of colour. He recently returned to England after spending many years as creative director at several advertising agencies in New York City and it's this graphic design background that influences his work – conceptual, minimalist and bold. His paintings employ acrylics, sometimes with the addition of gold leaf or mixed media.
