Their funk-fuelled repertoire is wildly eclectic, ranging from New Orleans inspired swing to heavy rock riffs. Musically inspired by artists such as Tom Waits, Blur, Randy Newman and Queens Of The Stone Age, and with lyrics influenced by the Beat Generation and Gonzo journalism, Tankus the Henge defy categorisation. Their hair-raising show, like no other, has to be seen and heard to be believed. Like a psychedelic, rock n roll octopus - only with four more legs.

With a standing ovation and roars for more, and much to the delight of folk fans everywhere, Knight and Spiers decided not to leave things there and made their collaboration more permanent. They now have a regular touring schedule and we are delighted that this will include an evening at the Flavel.

LUCIEN FREUD: A SELF PORTRAIT

Tue 14 Jan, 7.30pm
£12

Spanning nearly seven decades, the self-portraits of Lucian Freud give a fascinating insight into both his psyche and his development as a painter. This collection of more than 50 paintings, prints and drawings represent an engrossing study into the dynamic of ageing and the process of self-representation.

This intensely compelling exhibition from the Royal Academy of Arts in London, in collaboration with the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston, creates a unique opportunity for EXHIBITION ON SCREEN to reveal the life's work of a master in one show.

ROH LIVE – THE SLEEPING BEAUTY

Sat 18 Jan, 2pm
£16.50, £10 under 18s

This production of The Sleeping Beauty has been delighting audiences in Covent Garden since 1946. A classic of Russian ballet, it established The Royal Ballet both in its new home after World War II and as a world-class company.

Piotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky's enchanting score and Marius Petipa's original choreography beautifully combine with sections created for The Royal Ballet by Frederick Ashton, Anthony Dowell and Christopher Wheeldon. This ballet is sure to cast its spell over anyone who sees it.

ROH LIVE – LA BOHEME

Wed 29 Jan, 7.45pm
£16.50, £10 under 18s

Puccini's opera of young love in 19th-century Paris is packed with beautiful music, including lyrical arias, celebratory choruses for Act II's evocation of Christmas Eve in the Latin Quarter and a poignant final scene over which the composer himself wept.

Richard Jones's production captures La bohème's mixture of comedy, romance and tragedy and the cast features some of the greatest interpreters of Puccini's bohemian lovers performing today.

ROH LIVE – THE CELLIST & DANCES AT A GATHERING

Tue 25 Feb, 7.15pm
£16.50, £10 under 18s

Cathy Marston has previously been an Associate Artist of the Royal Opera House and Director of Bern Ballett, and is much in demand internationally. The inspiration for her first work for The Royal Ballet Main Stage is the momentous life and career of the cellist Jacqueline du Pré.

Jerome Robbins's elegant and elegiac classic forms the second part of the programme. This exercise in pure dance for five couples, set to music by Chopin, is a masterpiece of subtlety and invention.

ROH LIVE - FIDELIO

Tue 17 Mar, 7.15pm
£16.50, £10 under 18s

Beethoven's only opera is a masterpiece, an uplifting story of risk and triumph. In this new production, conducted by Antonio Pappano, Jonas Kaufmann plays the political prisoner Florestan, and Lise Davidsen his wife Leonore (disguised as 'Fidelio') who daringly sets out to rescue him.

Tobias Kratzer's new staging brings together the dark reality of the French Revolutionary 'Terror' and our own time to illuminate Fidelio's inspiring message of shared humanity.

ROH LIVE - SWAN LAKE

Wed 1 Apr, 7.15pm
Sat 11 Apr, 2pm
£16.50, £10 under 18s

Liam Scarlett's glorious production of Swan Lake, new in 2018, returns for its first revival. While remaining faithful to the Marius Petipa/Lev Ivanov text, Scarlett's additional choreography and John Macfarlane's magnificent designs breathe new life into what is arguably the best-known and most-loved classical ballet.

Tchaikovsky's first score for ballet soars with its symphonic sweep and combines perfectly with exquisite choreography in this eternal tale of doomed love, a masterpiece filled with iconic moments.

EASTER IN ART

Tue 7 Apr, 7.30pm
£12

The story of Christ's death and resurrection has dominated western culture for the past 2000 years. It is perhaps the most significant historical event of all time, as recounted by the gospels but, equally, as depicted by the greatest artists in history.

Shot on location in Jerusalem, United States and throughout Europe, this beautifully crafted film explores the different ways artists have depicted the Easter story through the ages and thus depicts the history of us all.

ROH LIVE - CAVALLERIA RUSTICANO/ PAGLIACCI

Tue 21 Apr, 7pm
£16.50, £10 under 18s

Two opera classics are drawn together in this wonderfully observed re-creation of life in a south Italian village as a travelling theatre visits and emotions erupt. The award-winning production by Damiano Michieletto presents vividly the fast-moving events brought about by secret love and uncontrollable jealousy.

With thrilling singing and intense drama, 'Cav and Pag' distils into one wonderful night out, the enduring appeal of Italian opera in its most familiar form.

TRADING PLACES

IAN WATSON

6 Jan – 2 Feb

Photographs don't do it for me; my work has always attempted to be antithetical to glossy mass media images of places or figures; the painted surfaces becoming gritty and textured.

These paintings reflect two years' response to a new environment since relocating from Yorkshire. Rapid observational drawings are developed from memory into work which shows my increasing interest in the geometry of viewpoints encountered moving round the landscape or figure.
