The Flavel is an educational charity with an exciting programme of live arts events for all ages, including a broad range of music, theatre, workshops and speakers.

There is a regular cinema programme showing the latest films and exhibitions of local artists' work throughout the year.

The Flavel is a multi-purpose arts and community centre for Dartmouth that is accessible to everyone. It contains a multi-functional hall and two other meeting rooms available for hire by local organisations, individuals and businesses.

On the ground floor of the Flavel are the Dartmouth library and learning centre and Flavel Café. All are accessible to wheelchair users.
