welcome to the flavel

Nestled behind Flavel Church and close to the large Mayor's Avenue carpark, The Flavel is the heart of entertainment in Dartmouth with an exciting range of live events, films, exhibitions, classes and workshops along with a café and Dartmouth Library.

Following the challenges of the past 18 months, we are delighted to celebrate the return of live music with The Flavel Music Festival, 16-18 September, showcasing the very best of jazz, folk and world music. October sees the launch of The Comedy Network, featuring some of the hottest comedians on the circuit and we continue to offer a diverse range of film and event cinema to appeal to all interests.

Families and young people are welcome at The Flavel and, in addition to our usual offerings, we are extending our programme to include a variety of NEW children and family workshops along with our expanding wellbeing programme and other activities which will be suitable for all ages and abilities.

If you are a regular visitor, or have yet to discover us, we would like to welcome you with a 20% discount on all drinks or snacks from the bar when attending a performance during September and October.

The most up to date information and online booking is always available at www.theflavel.org.uk

Come and discover one of Dartmouth's best kept secrets - we look forward to seeing you very soon.

'1917' SCREENING FOLLOWED BY Q&As WITH WINNER OF THE ACADEMY AWARD FOR BEST CINEMATOGRAPHY, SIR ROGER DEAKINS CBE

A Flavel Benefit Event

Internationally renowned Roger Deakins has been nominated for Academy Awards fifteen times, winning the Academy Award for Best Cinematography twice for Blade Runner 2049 (2017) and 1917 (2019). He is best known for his work with directors such as Sam Mendes, the Coen brothers, and Denis Villeneuve, having worked on The Shawshank Redemption, Skyfall, Sicario and Hail, Caser! to name just a few titles.

The Flavel is delighted to welcome Roger along with James Deakins - his wife and collaborator - for a very special evening exploring and discussing his work. The evening will begin at 6pm with a screening of 1917, followed by a Q&A session which will also be open to audience members.

MARTIN SIMPSON

One of the true greats of the folk world, renowned guitarist Martin Simpson, will be returning to The Flavel for a fourth visit for a fantastic evening of superb musicianship. He has had the most nominations of any performer in the 18 years of the BBC Radio 2 Folk Awards winning the accolade of musician of the year twice. A virtuoso player equally at home playing English traditional folk, American folk and blues and his own compositions, above all Martin conveys his diverse treasure trove of material from the heart, performing with rare subtlety, intensity and honesty.

Tickets £20
Fri 17 Sep 7.30pm

EDUARDO NIEBLA

Hailed by the Guardian for his 'exquisite guitar playing', Eduardo Niebla is a formidable flamenco jazz guitar virtuoso. He has traversed the worlds of jazz, classical and world music, collaborating with such diverse partners as sitar maestro, Nishat Khan, Lol Coxhill (sax), the Dante String Quartet and Craig David. He presents an imaginative and stimulating instrumental set from his latest albums in which flamenco is infused with classical Indian music and a contemporary jazz edge, accompanied by guitarist Joao Lima.

JUDY DEWHIRST & JAN TREVORROW UNLOCKED

13 September - 2 October

Lockdown has been a challenging time for everyone but for artists Judy Dewhirst and Jan Trevorrow it has presented the opportunity to draw on memories and the joy of past experiences for inspiration.

'Unlocked' is their response to the inevitable curtailing of freedom and their paintings are an attempt to liberate the mind and lift the spirit in such an unprecedented situation.

LOCAL D'ARTISTS EXHIBITION

2 - 16 October

Members of Dartmouth Art Society had to cancel their planned summer exhibition due to a problem at their venue so have chosen to show some of their work at The Flavel.

Paintings produced before and during lockdown will finally see the light of day and it is hoped that this collection will be enjoyed by visitors to The Flavel this autumn.

VIVIENNE TURNER & SALLY WILKINSON LOOP

18 - 30 October

An exhibition by Vivienne Turner and Sally Wilkinson exploring repetition through different mediums.

Vivienne's work with willow involves the physical repetition of weaving natural fibres, while Sally's work with words looks at the repetition of thoughts in the conscious and subconscious mind.

Together they have produced an inspiring and thought provoking body of new work.

THE FLAVEL ANNUAL OPEN ART EXHIBITION: HOME

1 - 27 November

Submissions are invited for the 2021 Flavel Annual Open Art Exhibition on the theme of 'Home'. If you would like to submit an original drawing, painting, print, photograph, 3D work or textile for consideration please see our website www.theflavel.org.uk for full details and to download an application form.

Prizes are generously sponsored by The David Alexander Open Art Exhibition Fund: the Winners prize is £200 cash, and the runner up will receive a £50 Flavel gift voucher.

GARFIELD WESTON GRANT

We are pleased to announce that The Flavel has received a generous grant from the Garfield Weston Foundation as a contribution towards our costs as we recover from the pandemic. The Garfield Weston Foundation is a family-founded, charitable grant-making foundation, which supports a wide range of causes across the UK. It was established in 1958 by the Weston family and is one of the largest and most respected charitable institutions in the UK. It supports charities in a number of different areas including Arts and the Community. The Flavel was able to demonstrate the very important role it plays in promoting the arts locally and the support it both gives and receives from the community when making our application.
