JANE PRINCE

4 - 30 July

Welcome to my collection - all the paintings are of flowers and plants growing in my garden. With our world going into Melt Down (or was it Lock Down?) it was impossible to travel far and wide to look for inspiration, so I turned to my garden. I love the changing seasons and the different flowers and plants that arrive – from spring daffodils to dark green holly with bright red berries. I delight in the expressive potential of the paint and colour to represent my passion. I hope that there is something here for everyone to brighten up their day and that it says something new in a bright and colourful way.

EMMA JONES
PRINTS AND LINE DRAWINGS FROM NATURE

1 - 20 Aug

Inspired by rich Devon hedgerows, green woodland valleys and the wild coastline near my home, I observe and study species found in the South Hams.

I am drawn to the complex forms and patterns found in nature. Using line and detailed mark-making, I create hand pulled screen prints and original paintings, often mixing media such as ink, gold leaf and watercolour in my final pieces.

EDIE G

22 Aug - 3 Sep

I hadn't painted in a while but I now find myself in a position with fewer demands on my time, allowing me the freedom and energy to create.

Shifting from purely abstract work of my past, this series focuses on a more loose figurative style. I take influence from cinematography and literature to help convey the psychological/emotional state of the subject.
