VIVIENNE TURNER: FOUND

16 - 28 October

My latest collection of foraged woven wall panels using elements of nature.

The sculptured pieces have evolved from Found natural and man made fibres. Gathered within the river Dart's impressive woodlands and Strete Gates' diverse coastline at Slapton Sands.

Seascapes incorporate tangled fishing line, discarded shells, dried seaweed and seed heads from the vast array of wild flowers, which inhabit the shingle beach. I hope my work encourages you to look more closely into the heart of nature and appreciate its full beauty.
