Welcome to our Autumn Programme at The Flavel which has five-star cabaret, music, comedy and award-winning theatre. You can spend the evening with an explorer or join us for a two-course cinema dining experience inspired by the Stanley Tucci movie 'Big Night', during Food Festival.

We really hope there is something for everyone this season. We will continue to present the best of recent film releases, action, comedy, and drama, alongside some very special Live Cinema events, including Love Never Dies.

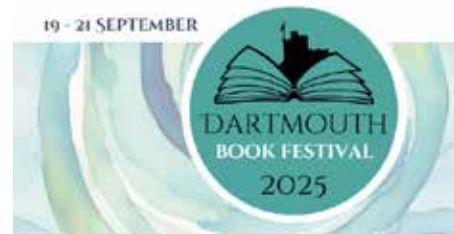

Our Dramatically Different classes for young theatre makers (aged 7-18) will return in September, as will the very popular art classes with Helena Clews, and we are also excited to welcome Drum Devon to the Flavel with their accessible Djembe classes. We will also continue with our popular and successful International Classical Series.

Look out for The Dartmouth Book Festival which returns for its second year - running over three days from Friday 19 to Sunday 21 September. With 29 separate talks and events over the weekend it's another great time to be in Dartmouth. Check out our website for the full listing of events or pick up a separate Book Festival Programme from the Box Office.

You will notice that we are programming more live theatre and more events for children and young adults - please come along and support our new programme - you can help us to keep the arts alive in Dartmouth.

We look forward to welcoming you to the Flavel very soon,

Michael Sells
Head of Programming & Operations
